NEW DODO BIRDS POPULAR SPORT

Tribune Makes Offer For Limited Time To Boys, Girls

"Sky fishing," newest outdoor sport, is introduced to Redwood City today by The Tribune.

The fascinating new sport is played with a rod and reel and new mystery "dodo" bird.

Two new three months' subscriptions to The Tribune are necessary to secure the bird, rod and reel.

The rod and reel are of the highest class of workmanship and can be used in regular fishing. The rod is a standard 7-inch model. The reel is a standard of the 2-speed drag type.

The mystery bird will fly just like a regular kite, but with the rod and reel handling will do stunts and fly much more successfully.

The Tribune will continue the special offering for a limited time. Subscriptions cost but 50 cents per month or $5 per year in advance.

Pin Game Ban Ordered Here By Councilmen

Parent Enters Strong Protest After Son Wins $10 Prize

Pin games must go the way of slot machines and other games of chance, the city council decreed last night, after Councilman James Eva reported receiving complaints from parents that youngsters were offered opportunities to gamble near the high school and one of them had won $10.

The parent of the lucky youngster was particularly vehement Eva said, notwithstanding that his son had won the $10. He said the youth could just as easily have lost as much. The fear was expressed by this parent that some of the youngsters might acquire the gambling fever from playing the pin games.

CHANCE OR SKILL?

The pin games in question usually call for a nickel charge to play. Marbles are then projected to the far end of a glass-encased board and by skillful play it is attempted to have the marbles fall into some of the high-numbered holes to record a high score.

Upright pins obstruct the marbles from the higher-scored holes, but when the volley is just of the right force and some luck is achieved, a record total is made and so much in merchandise or cash is paid.

Some youngsters use the games to play bets, Eva was informed. Two youths will put up 10 cents or some larger or smaller sum and then play the game, the one winning high score getting the pooled fund, he said.

WILL DRAFT CODE

City Attorney Albert Mansfield informed the council that the courts have not ruled finally on the question whether pin games are games of chance or games of skill.

But, he said, he could draft an ordinance which would forbid them in Redwood City. Burlingame, he said, has such an ordinance.

Upon motion of Councilman Eva, seconded by Councilman Louis Christensen, the board instructed him to do so.

150 to Appear In Band, Dance Fete Saturday

One hundred and fifty children will participate in a musical and dancing program which will be given at the Sequoia Theatre Saturday afternoon, according to an announcement today by Mrs. Ray Olmstead, director of the Olmstead Band and Dance Studios.

More than 50 of the children will be Redwood City students of the Olmstead Studios.

The Olmstead band and dancers have appeared in many large theatres in the bay region and entertain annually at Santa Cruz and Neptune Beach.

The program will be made up of tap dancing, fancy batoning, drum corps drill, accordion specialties and a dancing band. The drum corps is known as the youngest in the world.

Building Totals Gain In City and County

Building in both Redwood City and the unincorporated district of the county recorded another gain during August, totals compiled by building inspectors revealed today.

Inspector I. C. Drathman reported August permits taken out in Redwood City totaled $12,455, compared with $11,005 last August.

Inspector William Watson Jr. reported $70,785, as compared with $63,200 last year, bringing this year's total so far to $487,009. Last year at this time permits totaled but $298,925.

$14,178 BUDGET GIVEN APPROVAL

Menlo Park Sets Rate For General Needs At 45 Cents

Menlo Park's $14,178 budget for operating the municipal government during the 1935-36 fiscal year was adopted at a special meeting of the city council Saturday night.

Total anticipated expenditures from the general fund are set at $13,108 and from the street improvement fund at $1,070.

In contrast to a stormy council session last Friday night, marked by caustic exchanges between Mayor James Cooper and Councilman Harry Weeden, Saturday night's meeting was uneventful. Weeden was not present to press his objections to the budget, and the three majority members who were the only councilmen present passed it in its original form.

A tax rate of 45 cents on every $100 of assessed valuation is expected to produce $7,770.95 in revenue for the general fund, figured on a total assessed valuation of $1,897,671. Business licenses, permits, bank interest and miscellaneous charges are expected to yield an additional $5,573, bringing the total estimated revenue for general city operating costs to $13,343.95.

Court fines for traffic violations during the fiscal year are estimated at $1,700, to be credited to the street improvement fund.

HOSPITAL WING FOR AIR STATION

Isolation Ward to Be Built at Cost Of $10,000

Further improvements at the U. S. Naval Air Station at Sunnyvale were underway today as construction work began on a new wing on the dispensary building at an expenditure of approximately $10,000.

The funds will be provided out of the $48,000 appropriation recently granted by the federal government for improvement of buildings at the navy station.

The wing, which will measure 30 by 40 feet, will be used as an isolation ward. It will contain 14 beds.

Workmen will be taken from the public work relief rolls. According to officers in charge, the wing will be completed in approximately two months.

Meanwhile work is proceeding under another federal appropriation granted for improvement of walks, roads and grounds at the air station.

Registration of motor vehicles in Tokio during the first three months of this year totaled 1003 passenger cars and 237 trucks in comparison with 745 and 193 in the same period of 1934.

Daly City Grants Bingo Game Permit

DALY CITY, Sept. 2—On Payment of a $4,000 annual license fee, a new Bingo game will be opened here in the near future. Permit for operation of the game was granted by the city council Thursday night to John J. Sullivan of San Francisco. The game will be located on Mission street immediately south of the San Francisco line.

The $4,000 obtained from the fee will be used by the city for construction of an annex to the city library, the council decided.

DIES IN BURLINGAME

BURLINGAME, Sept. 3.—Franz Braun, 77, San Francisco insurance man and prominent member of several German societies, was dead today of a heart attack. He had been visiting here with his daughter, Mrs. Frances A. Kingsley. Another daughter, Erica Shelden, San Francisco, survives.

Both men and women wore their hair curled or frizzed with irons towards the end of the second century.

From 8 to 9 a.m. the usual trips will be made as during last year.

Long Terms Given Station Holdup Men

Two men who secured $20.03 in a San Mateo service station holdup September 16, 1932, must serve 7½-year terms in San Quentin, the prison board has decided. The pair are Wilson and John Dowrick. With Charles McKnight, a "three-time loser," they were captured at San Bruno after the holdup. The following year Martin Vuica, proprietor of the service station, shot his wife, was convicted of manslaughter and is now in San Quentin.

ADULTERY DIVORCE ASKED

Charging adultery, Kathleen Chelini today sued for divorce from August Chelini, South San Francisco garage owner, to whom she was married March 26, 1909. Mrs. Chelini charges her husband has lived with two other women since 1932. She asks $100 a month alimony, a cash judgment of $1000, and $500 counsel fees.

Harbor Voted $94,000 Fund For Dredging

Old Fund Kept Alive In Rivers, Harbors Bill By F. R.

Three projects on lower San Francisco bay, including $94,000 for dredging of Redwood Creek, had the approval today of congress following the signing over the week-end of the rivers and harbors bill by President Roosevelt granting $39,529,600 to California.

The bill provides $188,000 for dredging Redwood Creek, half of which must be contributed by local interests.

The dredging calls for a channel 27 feet deep and 200 feet wide from deep water in San Francisco bay to the junction of Redwood Creek and West Point Slough, where a turning basin about 1800 feet long, 700 feet wide and 27 feet deep will be provided.

San Jose won $300,000 of federal funds to be augmented by $260,000 from San Jose interests to dredge a deep water channel on its port project.

The report recommends a channel in the bay 27 feet deep, 300 feet wide, and channel 300 feet wide and 27 feet deep from Dumbarton point to mouth of Guadalupe river, with a turning basin 600 by 1200 by 30 feet.

The bill also provides for an investigation of the proposed yacht harbor development at Palo Alto, a project estimated to cost $48,000. Dredging of a deeper and wider channel from deep water on San Francisco bay to the existing yacht harbor is proposed.

San Francisco harbor won the following development: Modifying existing project to provide depth of 50 feet in main channel over bar; removal of Black point shoal to depth of 40 feet; provide depth of 35 feet in the approach channel to Islais creek; eliminate from project area south of the flared approach channel to Islais creek.

Richmond harbor and the extension of the Monterey breakwater at a cost of $240,000 were also approved.

FHA CONSTRUCTION NOW UNDER WAY

$175,000 of Building Under Federal Plan Reported Begun

New residential construction on the peninsula amounting to more than $175,000 is under way, or will be started immediately, under the National Housing Act plan of long term financing, it was announced today by the district office of the Federal Housing Administration.

Commitments recently issued authorizing government insured loans cover construction of 22 new homes in nine peninsula communities, it was declared by Jay Keegan, of San Mateo, associate director of the housing administration in Northern California district.

The commitments, it was said, authorize insurance of mortgages aggregating $135,100. Since several did not apply for a maximum loan representing 80 per cent of the appraised value, the total investment in new homes under commitments just issued is estimated at between $175,000 and $200,000.

Communities participating in the new home building program are: San Mateo, Burlingame, Millbrae, Palo Alto, South San Francisco, Woodside, San Carlos and Atherton.

"Practically all of these took advantage of the 20-year-payment plan to forestall future worry and expense of refinancing," Keegan said.

STATE POLICE CAPTURE MAN IN GUN DUEL

Auto Theft Suspect Fires at Kreiss And Walzberg

Paroled just a week ago from San Quentin prison, Robert Stewer, San Francisco, was in the city jail there today after his capture in a stolen car, following a gun duel, by State Highway Patrolmen Manfred Walzberg and Chester Kreiss on the Bayshore highway near South San Francisco.

The officers gave chase to the car driven by Stewer, who was accompanied by another man, when the automobile drove past them just before dawn with only one headlight.

Occupants of the fleeing car fired several shots at the pursuing officers before stopping their machine, abandoning it and running for cover.

None of the shots took effect.

The officers gave chase on foot and caught Stewer, whose record shows a San Quentin term for grand theft. He was once held in Palo Alto for car theft, police there reported.

The other man escaped.

YOUTH HANGS SELF AT S. J. RANCH PLACE

C. B. Bradford of P.A. Victim of Suicide In Despondency

PALO ALTO, Sept. 5 (Special)—Carl B. Bradford, 23, husband of Marian Matravers Bradford, 661 Gilman street, was found dead today hanging from a rafter in the garage of his father's ranch near San Jose.

Charles P. Bradford, the youth's father, found the body. The family expressed the belief the youth had been driven to suicide because of the lack of work. He had been helping harvest the fruit on the ranch. His wife was at Palo Alto with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Matravers.

The Bradfords had married only five months ago.

Frazer Heirship Hearing Finally Set for October

Trial to determine heirship in the James Frazer $309,000 estate definitely will get under way October 8, Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt ruled this morning in setting that and the two following days for hearing of the case.

At the same time, Judge McNutt ordered depositions already on file taken from many of the 49 claimants to the estate opened, that they might be inspected by attorneys. The lawyers immediately after the short hearing in court went to the office of County Clerk E. B. Hinman where the laborious process of reading questions and answers of the Irish claimants to the Palo Alto property was begun.

FOUR YACHTSMEN DUCKED AS WIND CAPSIZES CRAFT

Four local yachtsmen received a ducking in Redwood harbor late Monday in an accident that proved to be a comedy but might well have been a tragedy.

A sudden gust of wind caught the sails of Dr. Charles Morris' yacht, following a boat race in which the craft had placed fourth, capsizing it and dumping Dr. Morris, James R. Hedge, Gaynor Ebright and Cloyd Sweigert into the water.

Three of the men came up sputtering and laughing but Sweigert, well-known cartoonist, did not immediately come to the surface.

Suddenly he appeared from under the sail where he had been trapped and had to fight himself clear.

Sea Scouts, staying over after their regatta, received good practice coming to the aid of the dripping but chuckling yachtsmen.

The races were completed and the yacht was being brought into its berth when the gust caught the sails, capsizing the craft.

Seven yachts had participated in the race, won by S. Y. Monckton's "Romance," with boats of Ed Wright and Gordon Strawbridge placing second and third.

FATHER SERRA'S WORK DESCRIBED

Nearly Turned Back At San Diego, Says Kiwanis Speaker

How Father Junipero Serra, mission president from 1769 to 1784, nearly turned back at San Diego instead of continuing on up the coast establishing eight missions as he went was told to the local Kiwanis Club yesterday noon by Roy W. Cloud, Redwood City resident and secretary of the California Teachers' Association. Cloud was in the city just for the day, as his position keeps him travelling over the state.

Father Serra's statue and one of Thomas Starr King, about whom Cloud also spoke, are the only two from this state in the hall of statuary in the capitol at Washington, D. C.

With a group of fellow Catholics, Father Serra had gone to San Diego from Mexico City, founding the mission in the Southern California city. The party had left Mexico in three boats and by land. One of the boats, the San Jose, never was heard from.

FOOD GIVES OUT

After the mission had been established some time a food shortage developed since an expected ship failed to arrive. Disheartened by this fact and because no Indians had responded to the mission for some time, the party finally determined to attempt to get back to Mexico. It was decided to stay 10 days longer, and then give up the mission-founding expedition.

On the last day, however, an Indian youth came in and asked to be baptized. During the ceremony the provision-laden ship was sighted in the harbor.

The party then continued on up the coast, establishing seven more of the state's 21 missions before Father Serra died August 28, 1784, at the Carmel mission, where he is buried.

Cloud revealed that King, who was born in New York and ordained in the Unitarian ministry, between the time he came to California in 1860 and died in 1864 did perhaps more than any other one man to keep California from joining the confederacy.

RAISED WAR FUNDS

At that time, during the Civil War, the state legislature was said to have been favorable to joining the southern states, but King's preaching of freedom for the Negroes probably kept California from leaving the union.

King also started a movement similar to the present Red Cross which resulted in a million dollars being received on the western coast to care for wounded soldiers, according to Cloud.

King is buried in the yard of the church in San Francisco of which he was pastor.

At the Kiwanis meeting, nomination of directors was made. Election will be held next Wednesday of 10 directors, who later will select president and vice president from their group.

A. S. Ligouri was chairman of yesterday's meeting.

Missing San Brunan Believed Going East

Belief that Ted Kroecke, 26, San Bruno garage mechanic missing nine days, had gone east was expressed today by Deputy sheriffs following failure of a search of the Crystal Springs Lake country to reveal any clue as to the man's whereabouts.

It was pointed out that if he had fallen or jumped into the lakes, his body would have floated by now.

August Mueller Dies in Oakland; Son Lives Here

August V. Mueller, 69, father of Emil A. Mueller, 2520 Jefferson avenue, Redwood City electrical contractor and dealer, died at 8 a.m. today in Oakland.

Mr. Mueller was a native of Alsace-Lorraine, and came to this country as a youth of 18. He was a chef-cook by trade.

Surviving besides his son, Emil, are Frank Mueller, Bakersfield, and Ernest Mueller, Santa Cruz; his second wife, Anna, and two grandchildren, Lois and Robert Mueller, of Bakersfield.

Funeral services will be held at the Grant D. Miller chapel in Oakland at 10 o'clock Saturday; thence to Sacred Heart for a high mass, and interment to follow in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma.

Two States Watched For Missing Miner

SAN MATEO, Sept. 3.—Two San Franciscans who say they were "preaching the word of Jehovah" must appear here tomorrow before Judge Arthur Stetson on charges of operating a loud speaker and distributing books and pamphlets without a license, in violation of a city ordinance.

The pair, James E. Davis and Leon Laurent, were twice arrested by police Sunday, the first time on complaint of Mrs. W. A. Rapp, and the second time when police found them still "preaching" and passing out booklets in spite of their first arrest, according to officers.

$10,750 Suit Filed After Highway Crash

Damages totaling $10,750 were sought in a suit filed in superior court Monday by four people injured in an accident on the Bayshore highway August 25. Defendant is Mrs. Meyer Stein.

Red Cross Plans First Aid Units On Coast Roads

Plans of the Red Cross to establish first aid stations on El Camino Real and the Golden State Highway throughout the state were announced today.

Aid of the local Red Cross chapters, service station operators and units of the state highway patrols will be enlisted in establishing the aid stations, which are being placed at strategic positions in an effort to reduce the number of deaths resulting each year from traffic accidents. Last year 36,000 persons were killed on highways of the United States, according to A. L. Schafer, Red Cross manager in the Pacific area. Eventually the stations will be established throughout the country.

Field work on the project is being directed by Edwin H. Carroll, while H. P. Terwilliger is assigned to San Francisco, San Mateo, Redwood City, Palo Alto and other coast cities to link up segments to be molded into a unit covering the entire territory.

Widow of S. C. Man Dies in Palo Alto

Funeral services are planned for tomorrow at the Tinney Funeral Home in Palo Alto for Mrs. Louise Harrison Willats, 73, native of England, who moved to Palo Alto a month ago and died on Sunday evening at a Palo Alto sanatorium.

She was the widow of Uwins Willats of San Carlos and is survived by three sons, Henry and George Willats of San Francisco and Harry Willats of Los Angeles. She at one time lived in Redwood City. Interment will take place at Alta Mesa Cemetery.

TELLS OF RICHTHOFEN DEATH

FAMOUS WAR ACE SPEAKS TO CLUB

WADE RECITES AIR ESCAPADES

In an amazing story of aerial escapades, former Lieut. L. E. Wade, 377 Waverly street, Palo Alto, one of the first pilots to go overseas with the Canadian forces, related the most famous dog-fight of the air—the killing of Baron Manfred von Richthofen—in a talk to the Redwood City Exchange Club Tuesday at the Hotel Sequoia.

Wade was a member of the squadron which brought down the deadly German killer, and he saw him die, later examining the wounds which brought death to the German super-ace. Von Richthofen was shot down by Lieut. Roy Brown, now a Chicago attorney, Wade said.

The Palo Altan credited the shooting down of Richthofen as one of the greatest single feats of the World War and said it strengthened the morale of the whole allied army.

Wade himself brought down two other much-feared German aces—the von Meyer brothers. He first met one of the von Meyers in a solo duel over the German lines, bringing him down.

Some time later a German plane appeared over the hangar and dropped a note, challenging him to a duel at dawn to avenge the death of von Meyer. It was signed by the other brother.

Wade accepted, and won, shooting down his German foe behind the allied lines.

Von Meyer was taken to a hospital, and there he gave Wade a picture of his mother and sister in Germany, and asked him to visit them. He did, and was not treated with any hostility, the German mother declaring the deaths of her two boys merely the "fortunes of war."

Wade showed her the iron cross and other mementoes of her son, and was permitted to retain them as keepsakes.

Another exciting experience engaged in by Wade was the secret landing of spies in German territory. This was one of the most hazardous undertakings of war.

Wade was to return on the third day at dawn and pick up the spy. But he received a message to come a day earlier. He complied, but becoming suspicious, faked a landing at the designated spot.

Immediately several Fokkers took off to attack, and in the dog-fight Wade was seriously wounded, but managed to return to his own lines, cracking up in the landing. He spent seven weeks in the hospital, refused to quit, and went back to the lines.

Wade served with the American forces as soon as he could transfer from the Foreign Legion, to which he had gone from the Canadian forces.

Upon his return after the war, Wade barnstormed, became one of the first airmail pilots, pioneered as a commercial aviator, became a test pilot, and finally was forced out of the air by the wounds he had incurred in the war.

Wade met the girl who later was to become his wife when he cracked up in a stream at Wood River, Neb., while flying the mail, and called at the nearest farm house for aid.

Francis Tinney secured the speaker, and James Eva was chairman.

Final Tax Rates For Five Cities Set By Councils

Tax rates for several San Mateo county cities were set at council meetings on the peninsula Tuesday evening.

At San Mateo the rate established was $1.30 for the old town $1.15 for the new, and $1.12 for the Baywood and Homestead districts.

At Burlingame the rate was fixed at $1.38.

Other rates were Lawndale, $2.10; South San Francisco, $1.25 for incorporated area, $1.21 for unincorporated, and Daly City, 80 cents in the old town, 62 cents in the new.

The San Mateo council meeting was further marked by heated debate between Mayor Frank P Simmen and Councilman Emil Stein, the mayor charging Stein's efforts to secure salary increases for city employes were purely "political moves" and Stein countering with observations that proper budget reductions would have permitted higher salaries.

The San Mateo Negro Baptist church's request to move a church onto a lot it had acquired in a residential district was deferred for decision until next Monday.

At the Burlingame meeting, the city council heard plans of City Engineer C. M. Thomas for securing $4800 of federal funds held by the state highway commission so as to go ahead with widening work on El Camino Real in North Burlingame, plans for which had been dropped when the city's portion of the state gas tax was cut recently.

Escape Attempt Not To Halt Hanging

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Sept. 3 (IP)—William Bagley, 39, whose attempted escape from San Quentin's condemned row last night was frustrated by a prison trusty, will hang Friday as scheduled, Warden Holohan said today.

It was at first feared the condemned man's skull was fractured, but an x-ray taken today reveals only a severe bump, Holohan said. If a fracture had been revealed, Bagley's hanging would have had to await his recovery.

Cleric Demand On Gambling Up to Cities

Witt Says Supervisors Have No Control Over Games

Viewing the new "bingo" game as a form of gambling, but believing the matter is out of the jurisdiction of the county board, Supervisor Albert Witt Jr., Colma, Monday had the board direct attention of city authorities of Bayshare City and Daly City to the protest of the Rev. George Edward Brown of the Congregational Church of San Mateo.

Witt declared the clergyman was "out of order" for bringing the complaint to the supervisors.

The Colma supervisor, in whose district most of the gambling is carried on, charged that he was being blamed, and said he had no jurisdiction in the matter.

Witt said he did not approve the games. He said he had himself played "bingo" at Reno and that it was a gambling game.

The Colma supervisor then moved, Supervisor John Poole seconding it, that the protest of the Rev. Brown be referred to District Attorney Gilbert Ferrell and city attorneys of Bayshore and Daly City.

TWO COAST ROAD PLANS HELD UP

Two coast highway projects, one for $37,820 on the La Honda road and the other for $85,156 on the Pescadero road, were submitted to the board of supervisors Monday by County Engineer Carl Scott, but met with postponement.

Scott proposed the two improvements as PWA projects, with 45 per cent of the cost to come from federal agencies. Supervisor Albert Witt Jr., Colma, protested however, saying they should be made into WPA projects. This would require 20 per cent county participation.

The engineer replied that the county cost would be stepped up from $67,000 to $100,000 if the plans are changed. The board, however, delayed action indefinitely

Scott planned to expend $37,820 for a nine-tenths unit of the La Honda road from the present paved terminus to Woodruff Creek, and $85,156 on a two-mile stretch from Memorial Park west toward Pescadero.

SUPERVISORS ORDER LIGHTING PROBE

Investigation by County Executive Walter Kellogg into lighting costs charged by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company was ordered by the board of supervisors Monday on demand of Supervisor Albert Witt Jr., Colma.

Witt told Kellogg that "I mean business, this time," saying that a previous similar request had been ignored.

When the data is secured, Witt asked Kellogg to submit the matter to the district attorney and to see that formal application is made to the state railroad commission for reductions.

OTHER MATTERS BEFORE BOARD

Other actions:

Set the 1935-36 San Mateo county tax rate at $1.05 per $100, calling for total governmental expenditures in 1935-36 of $1,322,000 for general county government.

Approved state acceptance of the Woodside road as a state secondary highway.

Voted down a proposal that the court annex plan be kept alive until November, 1936, election, with application proposed to be made now for PWA funds.

Sold to Brush, Slocumb and Co., San Francisco, the $32,000 Millbrae School District 3 per cent bonds, at par plus accrued interest and a premium of $647.50.

Set for hearing in two weeks the granting of 18 or more hog permits in the upper peninsula area.

Purchase $640 of beach lands on Francis Beach and other frontages at Half Moon Bay.

TAVERN BROKEN INTO

BURLINGAME, Sept. 3—Thieves beaking into the Bayshore Tavern here stole cigars, cigarets and $12 in cash, police reported today. Owner of the tavern is L. Foster. Entry was made by breaking glass in a rear window.

MAIN STREET DESIGNATED STATE LINK

Earliest Thoroughfare Part of Secondary Road System

Main street came in for recognition Tuesday as an important secondary artery of the state when it was included in a resolution of the city council making it part of the "Redwood City-to-the-Sea" highway.

The old business thoroughfare, once the liveliest scene in Redwood City, will hereafter be an important artery linking the Bayshore highway with Woodside road, which also has been taken into the state's secondary system.

The state also is taking in the stretch of the Woodside road from the Redwood City limits to Woodside and the La Honda road from Woodside to the Skyline boulevard.

Eventually the link from the Skyline to Pescadero and the coast will be included.

Approval for these new links to be taken into the state was also voted by the county board yesterday.

Immediate action was asked by the state so that some consideration may be given in the making up of the budget tomorrow at Sacramento. Main street and the Woodside road hereafter will be state charges, with the city contributing from the gas tax funds and the state making up the shortages.

CITY TAX RATE SET AT $1.35 PER $100

Redwood City's tax rate for 1935-36 was formally set by the city council Tuesday at $1.35 per $100, of which $1 will be for general city purposes, 30 cents for 1915 bond interest, and 5 cents for a storm drainage project. The rate was set upon motion of Councilman Louis Christensen, seconded by Councilman James Eva.

Total expenditures will be $213,248.08, with $36,000 to go to 1915 bond interest and $6,000 to the storm drainage project.

Levies call for 55 cents, 5 mills for general purposes; 28 cents for bonds and interest; 10 cents, 5 mills for library; 1 cent for an additional paid fireman; 5 cents for reserve; 30 cents for 1915 bond interest, and 5 cents for the storm drainage project, for the total of $1.35.

In the annex, the rate will be $1.342, and in South Redwood and Carmelita Manor, $1.165.

If the 1915 refunding bond plan is carried September 24, the council will reduce all three rates by 20 cents. If the plan is not carried, the 30 cents will remain to meet interest on the outstanding 1915 act debt, and no progress toward its retirement will be made for the present.

The $1 rate for general purposes is 3 cents less than the $1.03 rate of 1934-35.

LIBRARY PROJECT AGAIN DISCUSSED

Still hopeful that Redwood City might secure a new library building under the PWA project, Mrs. A. S. Kalenborn through Mayor Charles Lambert had the problem discussed by the city council again Tuesday.

The idea held by the trustees is that the library corner might be sold for a figure sufficient to make up the difference between the PWA grant of 45 per cent and the city's share of 55 per cent, the city already owning another library site near the new post-office.

But the immediate problem, as the council saw it, was to find the buyer for the Broadway property and to set the new PWA project in motion in time to have it come under the public works deadline, set for today.

OLD WATER BILLS MUST BE PAID UP

Delinquent water bills must be paid up promptly or service will be cut off, the council decided Tuesday, after some of the accounts in arrears were shown to be of prominent citizens and firms who should be able to pay.

City Collector Nelle Miramontes asked the council for instruction in presenting a long list of unpaid water bills. The board instructed her to notify the delinquents that if prompt payment is not made, service will be shut off.

The instruction came upon motion of Councilman Louis Christensen, seconded by Councilman James Eva.

FLETCHER URGES BEACH AT HARBOR

Councilman Evans Fletcher urged the development of a sandy beach at the Redwood City Yacht Harbor, and Councilman Robert Jones suggested a shallow pool for use of youngsters.

The council agreed that further development of the recreational advantages at the harbor should be encouraged, and some of the facilities are expected to be ready for the next Sea Scout regatta.

The council was praised by Max Leonard, Sea Scout regatta chairman, for participating in the event.

CITY TAKES CHARGE OF FLORAL FLOAT

With Elmore B. Hinman, Perry Bygdnes and George McQueen appearing on behalf of the chamber of commerce, the council Tuesday night assumed as its responsibility the entering of a float in the county floral fiesta next month.

The matter was referred by the board to City Manager E. A. Rolison and he was instructed to confer with the growers here in working out the float. Several hundred dollars will probably be spent in the undertaking.

OTHER MATTERS BEFORE COUNCIL

Other actions included:

Accepted deeds from Vera and Adanell Gerwin to six parcels for the widening of Hudson street.

Referred proposals that Woodside road and Jefferson avenue be made into arterial stop streets to the planning board.

Filed the claim of Mrs. M. J. Nickels for $10,058 damages for personal injuries incurred when struck by a fireman's car.

Granted L. R. Procter of Santa Cruz the right to hold an old-fashioned dance every Saturday in Masonic Hall.

Granted J. Isacson of North Fair Oaks a permit to collect junk.

Authorized City Engineer Charles Dimmitt to sign WPA project applications.

Discussed tax penalty reductions, but took no action.

Rejected the Ruelian claim for $2,850 for damages.

Granted Councilman Christensen permission to leave the state.

Contractor's Wife Dies in Burlingame

BURLINGAME, Sept. 3.—Mrs. Anne M. Larsen, 81, wife of Chris Larsen, pioneer local contractor, was buried at the Woodlawn Cemetery this morning following services by the Rebekah lodge at the Odd Fellows' Hall. She died at her home here last night. A son, George, also survives.

Las Lomitas P.-T. A. To Meet Friday

Members and friends of Las Lomitas Parent-Teacher Association are invited by the president, Mrs. J. Vistica, to attend the first meeting of the fall season tomorrow afternoon at the Las Lomitas school at 2:30 o'clock when Miss Mildred L. Brown, director of girls' physical education at Sequoia Union High School, will speak.

Mrs. Vistica will preside at the meeting at which the budget for the coming year will be submitted for the approval of members. Following the business meeting, Mrs. R. Carlson and Mrs. C. Sparks will serve tea.

The Kentucky reformatory at Frankfort recently housed 3,000 inmates, although it was built to imprison only half that number.

Local Report Form Among Nation's Best

Report cards in use in McKinley elementary and Redwood City grammar schools were one of 10 printed in the July issue of the nationally circulated School Executives' magazine to exemplify progressive methods, it was learned today by School Superintendent John Gill.

These "improved types" of cards provide for ratings in progress in relation to ability, record, attitude and effort, present evidence of social behavior, show growth in leadership outside as well as inside the classroom, and report use of school time other than that spent on the more formal studies, the article stated.

Gill had been astounded during the past weeks to receive numerous requests from eastern schools for samples of the report cards and finally learned through one letter that the Redwood City cards had been published in this magazine.

New Lecture Season At College Planned

The second season of the community lecture series being held at the San Mateo Junior College auditorium will open on October 21 when Nicholas Roosevelt, formerly minister to Hungary and vice governor to the Philippine Islands, will speak on the "Restless Pacific."

Roosevelt has been an editorial writer on the New York Times and is now on the staff of the New York Herald-Tribune.

The United States ranks as the outstanding source of toys imported by Mexico, but its share of the total Mexican toy trade has declined. Imports from Japan are increasing.

2 Under Indictment In Kidnaping Jailed

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 3 (U.P.)—William Weaver, 38, and his sweetheart, Myrtle Eaton, 33, under indictment in the $200,000 Edward G. Bremer kidnaping, were in the Ramsey county jail today.

Captured with them near Allendale, Fla., and brought to St. Paul with them by plane was a 3-year-old youngster they had adopted in an apparent attempt to hide their identities.

They had been living on a chicken ranch.

FEW DISEASE CASES

With only two cases of whooping cough, one of chicken pox and one of tuberculosis reported, the county remained comparatively free of disease last week, according to Health Director Gans' weekly morbidity report. All the diseases reported were in the north end of the county.

SISTERS KILLED IN PACHECO CRASH

Visalia College Head Is One of Victims; Car Demolished

En route from Belmont, where they had attended summer school, to Visalia, two Sisters of Notre Dame convent at Visalia met death Monday afternoon when their automobile was demolished in a collision with a truck at the junction of the Pacheco Pass and Hollister roads.

They were Sister Mary Josephine, head of the Visalia institution, who was instantly killed; and Sister Ann Elizabeth, who suffered injuries from which she died within an hour at the Hazel Hawkins Hospital at Hollister.

THREE INJURED

Three others in the car were injured:

Sister Mary Francis, also of the Visalia convent, cuts and bruises.

C. Hill, Visalia, driver of the car, compound fracture of the left leg, broken nose.

Mrs. Helen B. Moore, Visalia, owner of the car, broken nose, shock and bruises.

The accident occurred as the Catholic sisters were returning from school at the Belmont College of Notre Dame.

As the car, going east, approached the "Y" junction of the Pacheco Pass and Hollister roads, the truck was coming toward it. Evidently, it was said, Hill expected the truck to continue around the curve on the road to Gilroy, but instead it turned off on the Hollister route and the two machines met almost headon. The passenger car was demolished.

Father Cawley, Monsignor Smith and Monsignor Sullivan chanced to be following the Moore machine in their own car, and were at the scene a moment or two after the accident occurred. They assisted in having the injured brought to the Hawkins Hospital at Hollister. The body of Sister Mary Josephine was taken to the Battersby funeral home at Gilroy.

The truck involved in the accident was a Mercantile Accept Corporation of San Francisco vehicle, driven by Grady H. Kirby of Salinas. Riding with him was Ralph Watkins. Neither Kirby nor Watkins suffered serious injuries.

A little more than 100 years ago, there were only four grown horses in Australia.

Three Local Men Win State Posts At Italian Meet

Having had three members of the local unit elected to state offices, delegates to the Italian-Catholic Federation ninth annual convention held over the week-end in Santa Barbara returned to their homes here today.

Amerigo Rossi, who for the past six years has been grand president, was elected grand treasurer after declining renomination to the presidency.

Louis B. Dematteis, deputy attorney, was elected general procurator, which is head of the inside legal staff of the organization, and was also named on the central governing board.

Victor Canavese, Woodside estate caretaker, was elected on the judiciary committee.

With S. Delbono, Dematteis and Canavese were the official delegation, although more than 20 other members of the Redwood City unit also attended the gathering, arrangements for which were largely in the hands of Rossi.

At the meeting, the Redwood City lodge won second place among the 35 uniformed marching units, San Francisco's chapter 20 winning first and Alameda, third.

Bank America Tells Of Auto Credit Plan

Announcement of a new credit plan for financing the purchase of new and used automobiles on a low-cost basis was made today by L. M. Giannini, president of Bank of America, through J. E. Morrish, local manager.

The most novel innovation of the plan is the provision for the issuance of a letter of credit to the prospective automobile purchaser, entitling him to shop for his car as a cash buyer.

"The principles of automobile financing are now sufficiently well established to permit conservative banks to make this service a part of their regular credit facilities," Giannini said. "We feel that the financing of automobile purchases offers a safe field for the employment of loanable bank funds, and that the credit of the automobile buyer who deals on an installment basis has been established."

BABY SERIOUSLY HURT IN CRASH

15-Months-Old Child Struck by Vehicle On Middlefield

Suffering from a brain concussion and possible basal skull fracture, little 15-month-old Severuio Cesarin of 1112 Stambaugh street was in the Middlefield Hospital Monday, "improved, but not out of danger," according to Dr. J. N. Blood, who has been treating the child since it was injured Saturday evening.

The baby was hurt when its walker was struck by the car driven by Brier McNeil of Fourth avenue, North Fair Oaks. McNeil told Redwood City police that as he was going north on Middlefield road Richard Cesarin, 5, brother of the injured baby, ran in front of the McNeil automobile.

In avoiding the older boy, the driver struck the baby's cart. He immediately brought the child to the hospital for treatment.

Just over the line in San Francisco, George Laidlaw, 65, of Daly City, met death Monday when he ran into the side of a passing automobile driven by Siro J. Viacava, 19, San Francisco.

James Connolly, 57, of Millbrae Park, was critically burned early Sunday when a cigaret set fire to his bed. He was taken to Community Hospital suffering from third degree burns on the face and upper part of his body.

When a tire blew out, causing a machine to turn over three times and spill five occupants onto the Bayshore highway in Burlingame Saturday night, police witnessing the accident called first for an ambulance and then ran to give help.

They found broken watermelons, crushed suit cases and damaged provisions but William Casey, driver, Mr. and Mrs. N. K. Andreini and Dolores and John Casey, all of San Francisco, uninjured, not even scratched, the police said. William Crosby's ambulance, answering the call, went back unused.

Robert Gallian of San Mateo received a severe cut on the forehead when his machine collided in San Mateo with a car driven by Fred Meyer of Burlingame Saturday evening. The injured man was treated at the Mills Memorial Hospital in San Mateo.

When the door of his car flew open while he was driving early Sunday morning on El Camino Real near San Carlos, A. K. Hansen fell out and incurred a skinned arm and hand for which he received emergency aid at the San Mateo County Community Hospital.

MENLO PARK NEWS

The marriage of Miss Wynne Hibbert and Albert E. Bubb was solemnized at the Presbyterian Church by the Rev. W. L. Staub. Both are former residents of Everett, Wash. After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Bubb will reside at 740 Homer avenue, Palo Alto.

On Tuesday last Cyril Guglielmoni, a pioneer of Menlo Park, pased away in San Francisco following a long illness. The funeral will take place in San Francisco this morning. The deceased was well known in fraternal and business circles in this part of the state. Guglielmoni's home on the Alameda was a show place and often the scene of social gatherings. The deceased is survived by five children. One son, Marvin, has been identified with banking interesst of the peninsula for several years and is now connected with the Bank of America at Reno, Nev.

St. Joseph Parochial School opened this week with an increased attendance. The teaching staff will be the same as last term.

Miss Betty Welch has entered the teachers' college at San Francisco. Will Welch is a talented and beautiful girl with a host of friends.

A card party of local Native Sons composed of George Murray, Al Allaines, Frank Johnson and William H. Weeden attended installation of officers at Mountain View Wednesday.

W. H. Weeden represented the San Mateo County Floral Fiesta at St. Helena Vintage Festival Saturday. He was introduced over the loud speaker and talked about the fiesta.

There will be a regular meeting of the Menlo Park American Legion Auxiliary in Legion Hall on Tuesday, September 10, at 8 p. m. Plans will be discussed for installation of officers.

Reports from George Condos, prominent legionnaire, who is ill at Fort Miley, are encouraging.

Isabelle Weeden Lindquist accompanied Mme. Claire Sowash and Margaret Dinminger on the piano when they each sang a group of songs at the South San Francisco Legion Auxiliary installation Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weeden, their daughter, Isabelle Weeden Lindquist, and her children, Billy and Emma Roberta, will motor to Sacramento and Stockton over the week-end.

The Native Sons and Native Daughters homeless children card party will be held Monday, October 7th.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Walker are again at their Menlo Park home after a month in Southern California.

Portola Rancher Dies in Hospital

Manuel Gomes, 56-year-old Portola rancher who had lived there for the past 30 years, died Tuesday at the Community Hospital.

A native of the Azores Islands, Gomes is survived by his wife, Rosa; a son, Joseph, and a sister, Mrs. Florence Alves of Mayfield.

Gomes was a member of several Portuguese organizations.

First Noon Dance Held By Sequoians

At 12 Wednesday, Sequoia high school students held their first noon dance, sponsored by the commissioners. The dance was given in the girls' gymnasium, roof of which has now been completed. Damage done to the plaster by rains the opening day of school was of minor importance, and the completed earthquake-proofing of the building leaves it ready for school activities.

Fifth Suspect Jailed In Market Burglary

Fifth suspect to be arrested in connection with the entrance of the California Market early the morning of Sunday, August 25, Edward Shea, 23-year-old lather who formerly lived here, was in the county jail today after his arrest for local officers at his home in San Francisco.

Shea is charged with burglary. He is accused of being one of four alleged lookouts who left Fred Stevenson, 30, without assistance when he was arrested by Special Officer J. A. Rosa while emerging from the store which he had entered with the aid of a small crowbar, according to the officer. Nothing was taken from the store.

SUFFERS TOE INJURY

Walter Ray, courthouse janitor, suffered an injured toe when he dropped a box on his foot Tuesday.

RESPITE WON FOR DISPOSAL AT BAYSHORE

S. F. Given 10 Days While New Code Is Drafted

San Francisco was given another 12 days, at least, in which to dump garbage at Baysnore City before long-threatened armed action to halt the practice will be taken, when the Bayshore Sanitary District Board Tuesday decided to pass an ordinance stopping the dumping.

Upon advice of their counsel, Attorney Frank V. Kington of Redwood City, the three board members present decided to meet again tomorrow night to pass to first reading the ordinance to halt the garbage dumping. The ordinance will not become effective for 10 days.

Decision to proceed under the new plan was taken when Kington reported that although he believed an injunction granted two years ago in San Jose was no longer effective, he thought it safer to proceed by ordinance in cancelling garbage permits and halting the fill and cover disposal of the bay city's 650 tons of daily garbage in the tidelands of San Mateo county.

Only three members of the board were present, Chairman Phillip Cain, Secretary Sam Illiger, and George Stone, all anti-garbage proponents. They at first started to take action by motion at the meeting to end the dumping, but they decided to proceed by ordinance.

Mrs. Ford Booked On Slander Charge

Accused of slandering former Police Chief Claude Higgins, Mrs. Jessie Ford, 56-year-old Bayshore housewife and school trustee, was booked at the jail last Tuesday night and released immediately on bail after her arrest by Undersheriff Lawrence Nieri on a warrant sworn to by Higgins and issued by Justice Wade H. Clay, before whom she will appear on the charge.

Resignation of Higgins from the Bayshore City one-man police force was accepted by the city council there last night and Fred B. Williams of 134 McDonald avenue, Bayshore City, was appointed in his place. George H. Buttle of Daly City was named as special officer for duty at the Bayshore dog track.

San Quentin Prison Term Is Given Ilog

Albert B. Ilog, convicted by a jury of drunken driving and manslaughter in the death near here July 4 of Lloyd Sweeney, San Francisco, on Wednesday, was denied probation and sentenced to San Quentin prison when he appeared before Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt.

KELLOGG HAS NO STATEMENT OVER ATTACK

Executive Outwardly Shows No Concern To Beer Ouster

Apparently outwardly unperturbed by Supervisor Fred Beer's unsuccessful attempt to oust him, Executive Kellogg Wednesday declined to issue a statement regarding the supervisors' meeting other than to declare emphatically he had no intention of resigning.

Pressed for an explanation of his contention Supervisor Beer recently told him four board members were against the executive, Kellogg explained the incident happened in his office "about a week ago."

"Beer told me that he was the best friend I had on the board of supervisors, but that he would have to go with the majority and that there were now four votes against me," Kellogg said.

Kellogg said nothing else was said in the short conversation.

Supervisor Beer denies making any such statement to Executive Kellogg.

75 Chickens Die In Early Blaze At Mora's Place

Fire, believed started from a defective wire, killed 75 chickens and 12 rabbits and did $150 damages Wednesday at the John Mora place in Palo Alto Park.

The fire alarm from the Ravenswood office was sounded at 1:50 a.m., and Menlo Park apparatus responded, as well.

About 325 chickens were saved

Belmont Fire Dance Plans Are Furthered

BELMONT, Sept. 4.—"Progress" was the report of the dance committee at the meeting of the Belmont Fire Department held last evening at the firehouse on O'Neil avenue. The dance is scheduled for September 21, at the Belle Monte Country Club, with Manuel Valledeo, Allan Cranford and Capt A. T. Hasbrouck heading the committee. All members will assist.

Kenneth R. Stewart was added to the roster of the department. Clarence R. Johnson was appointed as an active member to answer the call of the siren. Johnson takes the place of Leonard Dombroski who has been away from Belmont for the past year.

Cranford will represent the department at the chiefs' convention to be held at Sacramento soon.

A novel plan inaugurated to increase the membership and promote interest has already showr results, stated W. E. Curtis, president.

Stack Delays Paying $10,000 on Pledge

Attempts of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce to collect $10,000 pledged by the board of supervisors towards purchase of the Sunnyvale airbase site failed today when Controller Edward M. Stack refused to pay George North, Redwood City resident and member of the bay city chamber.

Stack said he informed North he would have to have a bill from the chamber approved by the supervisors before he would make the payment, funds for which have been set up in the new budget.

$8245 DAMAGES ASKED

Damages of $8245.75 for injuries sustained by Mr. and Mrs. Allen T. Hill when their machine collided February 27 on the Bayshore highway with the truck of Harry U. Akimoto and A. J. Sukekano were asked in a suit filed in superior court today

Scott's Amended Complaint Is Filed

Carl R. Scott's amended complaint asking $1,620 county engineer's salary, and listing as additional evidence the recent action of the board of supervisors in authorizing him to rebuild the Lobitos Creek bridge; the restraining order issued by San Jose Superior Judge R. R. Syer, and an affidavit that no resignation has ever been filed with County Clerk E. B. Hinman was filed in the appellate court Monday by Attorneys Fred Comba and Ernest Wilson.

Milk Bottle Salesman Sought on Warrant

Accused of perpetrating a confidence game on coastside dairymen, F. W. Stewart, who had given a fictitious Palo Alto address, was being sought on a petty theft warrant Monday.

Stewart is charged with soliciting dairymen to buy milk bottles from him, taking a deposit on the order, then failing to make delivery.

He victimized a number of dairy operators, one of as much as $18, it was reported to Justice Edward I. McAuliffe, who issued the warrant.

Tile Delays Finish Of New Postoffice

Failure of tile for the lobby floor to arrive from the East probably will delay moving into the new postoffice building for a week, Federal Engineer John E. Lammers reported Monday.

It had been believed the finishing touches would be put on the building this week, enabling removal from the old building on Middlefield road over the coming week-end.

NEWS FLASH

FOUR MORE CLAIM FRAZER KINSHIP

Hearing for Heirship Settlement Again Postponed

Bringing the total such claimants to 49, four New York residents Monday filed notice in superior court that they are relatives of the late James Frazer, Palo Alto merchant, and that they would seek a share of his $309,000 estate, which is in process of liquidation.

At the same time, Superior Judge A. R. Cotton continued until Thursday the hearing to determine heirship, set for today. Thursday and additional continuance is expected to be granted.

Those filing the new claim are Mary Sarah Patterson Chandley, 104 Cook avenue, Yonkers, N. Y.; Robert Alexander Patterson, same address; Susan Patterson Bell, 1237 Hoe avenue, New York City, and Andrew Patterson, Lawrence, L. I., N. Y. They do not state what relationship they claim. Their petition was filed through Attorney Stanley N. Ohlbaum, 60 Wall street, New York City.

Previous to the new petition four different families had laid claim to having been the immediate kin of Frazer, mystery merchant whose will, if he left one, has never been found. Frazer lived for many years in San Francisco while conducting his two stores in Palo Alto, but died in a San Mateo rooming house.

First Airplane Trip Is Taken By Hoover

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3 (IP)—To Aviator Bob Allen, pilot of a new oil company cabin plane, today went the distinction of flying former Pres. Herbert Hoover on what was said to be the Republican party chief's first airplane trip.

Hoover flew from Eureka to Mills Field, San Francisco, Sunday, airport attaches said.

The plane circled his Stanford University campus residence before sitting down at the San Francisco airport.

DIXIE LEFT ON REEF AS PASSENGERS RESCUED

Second Holdup Of Oil Station Nets Thugs $2

For the second time since March, the Standard Oil Station on El Camino Real at the Junipero Serra road intersection was held up Monday, but the two armed thugs got only about $2 for their pains, deputy sheriffs reported.

The holdup occurred at 11:40 o'clock. The station attendant had just finished waiting on two cars when a third drove in and the driver asked for five gallons of gasoline.

When the station operator finished putting in the gasoline and went inside with the customer to collect the money, he faced a revolver in the hands of the driver of the machine.

The holdup man then started to take money out of the till, but arrival of another gasoline customer caused him to flee, taking only $2.

Opal Jones, 23, was sentenced to San Quentin prison for the other holdup after his capture by Sheriff James J. McGrath and deputies in San Francisco.

KILLS THREE RATTLERS

SAN MATEO, Sept. 2 — While hunting, Jack Thorimbert of San Mateo killed three rattlesnakes on the Crystal Springs road. The snakes were found in a bush by young Thorimbert when he heard a buzzing noise. As they came out the youth shot each in turn with a .22 rifle. The longest was 37 inches long. Another was 36 and the other 30.

COUNTY IS FREE OF HOLIDAY DEATH

Nine Injured in Two County Accidents; 162 Die in U. S.

Although 162 persons met death in holiday traffic accidents, San Mateo county remained free of fatalities over the Labor Day weekend.

Rain and abnormally cool weather over a major portion of the United States saved more than 200 lives, insurance actuaries estimated, according to the United Press. For the past three years the Labor Day toll has exceeded 350. The rain and cold kept picnickers at home, it was believed.

Seven persons were injured in this county when two motor cars crashed at the Skyline boulevard-Pedro mountain road yesterday afternoon. Injured were Mrs. June Shannon, 25; her daughters, Patsy, 8, and June, 6; Mrs. Jack Peterson, 39; R. W. Drieschman, 28, all of San Francisco; Angelo Garelli, 28, of Santa Cruz, and Miss Connie Wilson, 25, San Francisco. The latter two were in Garelli's machine, while the other five were in the car driven by Drieschman, according to investigating patrolmen.

Mrs. William Brotherton, 20, of Half Moon Bay, suffered slight injuries when the car in which she was riding with her husband and the machine of J. T. McGuire, 28, of San Francisco, collided three miles north of Half Moon Bay.

Weekly Bulletin Planned at M'Kinley

Under the direction of Ben A. Leese, McKinley faculty member and former Stanford journalist, the elementary school is to have a weekly news bulletin distributed to all classes, and in addition a school magazine which will come out twice a semester this year.

PLEASURE HARBOR HEARING AWAITED

Palo Alto to Request Funds for Yacht Development

With the signing by the president of the rivers and harbors bill over the week-end, an investigation of Palo Alto's proposal for dredging the channel from deep water to the municipal yacht harbor will probably start soon by the army engineering corps stationed in San Francisco.

The hearing, which may be held here, is designed to determine if the government is justified in financing the operation, estimated to cost $48,000, as a means of promoting a recreational venture. The local situation is exceptional in that it is customary for the federal treasury to finance dredging only in cases where commercial objectives are involved. A suggestion has been made that, if recommended, the Palo Alto job might be done as a PWA project. If the work were to be done on the usual basis, it would be necessary to await the inclusion of an appropriation in a subsequent rivers and harbors bill.

The city's petition to the federal government asks that the channel leading from mid-bay to the Palo Alto Yacht Harbor be widened to 200 feet and excavated to give a depth of 10 feet at low tide, thereby permitting small craft to enter and leave the waters adjacent to municipal lands at all conditions of tide.

It is estimated that the removal of 800,000 yards of mud would be entailed. The city offered to do the work, using its own dredger, on the basis of six cents a yard.

The rivers and harbors bill just signed by the president also provides $300,000 with which to carry on dredging at Port San Jose, culminating agitation over the past seven years on behalf of the project.

The bill makes provision for the use of $40,000 of federal funds to dredge San Bruno shoals and $260,000 to take care of one-half of the cost of a 4 and one-half mile channel through the shallow waters of the bay to the port site.

Further, there is the expectation a PWA grant of $810,000 to promote the port project.

500 Ask Transfer Of Lamson Trial

SAN JOSE, Sept. 2 (Special to the Tribune).—E. M. Rea, associate defense counsel in the forthcoming third trial of David Lamson for wife murder, announced today that four petitions asking for a change of venue have been presented to him. They bear the names of more than 500 residents of this county. Rea indicated that next week he expects to have about six additional petitions, all of which will be turned over to Judge R. R. Syer, before whom the case is scheduled to open on September 23.

Judge Syer today assigned his task as presiding judge of the local superior court to Judge William James in order to clear his own docket for the Lamson case.

The seasonal decline in the Canadian demand for standard radio sets is being practically counterbalanced by increasing sales of battery and automobile sets.
